Gerry Cooney is one of the world's most beloved heavy-weight boxers. He is perhaps best remembered for his 1982 bout against undefeated heavy-weight champ Larry Holmes, which earned him the moniker "The Great White Hope." One of the best left-hook artists in boxing, Cooney retired in 1990.

Former NY Jet Joe Klecko was a member of the most feared defensive front fours in the history of the NFL -- the "New York Sack Exchange." He was the first NFL player to be named to the Pro Bowl at three different positions and he was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year. His number 73 was retired by the Jets in 2005.
